

Table S3. Results of the PCA performed with specimen shape data. The table shows the loadings of each variable in each principal component, and the bars indicate the variance explained by each component.

